PORTFOLIO COMPOSITION

Skyline Commercial REIT specializes in light industrial real estate including the logistics, distribution, and storage and warehousing sectors. The REIT is well-positioned for growth amid rising demand for these spaces from e-commerce and distribution providers. Properties are located near major transportation routes in strong and growing Canadian markets.

Each property is professionally managed by Skyline Commercial Management Inc., a commercial real estate property management company housed within Skyline Group of Companies.

Skyline Commercial REIT has approximately 74% of its tenants in the warehousing and distribution sector. This weighting anchors the REIT's long-term strategy to a strong and growing commercial real estate asset class.

REIT HISTORY AND PERFORMANCE

Skyline Commercial REIT is a privately managed investment that has enjoyed historical stability and low vacancy. The REIT presents an opportunity to invest in a strong and growing real estate asset class.

FOOTNOTES

- Unit value is determined by a Net Asset Value (NAV) model based on evaluations by Senior Management and the Skyline Commercial REIT Board of Trustees.
- The annualized return is based on a single unit initial investment in the Skyline Commercial REIT inclusive of unit price changes and reinvested distributions. As at November 1, 2021.
- Current Annual Yield is equal to the annual distribution per unit divided by the current unit value. As at November 10, 2021.
- Funds From Operations (FFO) is a REIT measurement of cash generated from operating rental properties. It is essentially profit from operations, excluding depreciation used for tax purposes and excluding any gains or losses on dispositions.
- A payout ratio indicates what percentage of a company's FFO is being paid out as distributions. Generally, a lower payout ratio may indicate a more sustainable distribution and opportunity for future growth within the Trust.
- Accredited Investors and Eligible Investors under the Offering Memorandum Exemption. Full definition at <https://skylinewealth.ca/faq>

No securities commission or similar authority in Canada has reviewed or in any way passed upon this document or the merits of the securities of Skyline Commercial Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT), and any representation to the contrary is an offence. There is no active market through which the securities may be sold, and redemption requests may be subject to monthly redemption limits. Investors may be restricted from selling the securities for an indefinite period. The indicated rate of return is the annualized return including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and does not consider sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Exempt market products are not guaranteed, their values change frequently, and past performance may not be repeated. The payment of distributions is not guaranteed and may fluctuate. The payment of distributions should not be confused with an exempt market product's performance. Distributions paid as a result of capital gains realized by an exempt market product, and income and dividends earned are taxable in your hands in the year they are paid. Your adjusted cost base will be reduced by the amount of any returns of capital. If your adjusted cost base goes below zero, you will have to pay capital gains tax on the amount below zero. Prospective investors must make an independent assessment of such matters in consultation with their own professional advisors.
